The Print Operations Group Wins it's Second 'Best Services' Award at the Gartner Print and Imaging Summit

Calgary, Alberta, Canada ... December 19th, 2007, ... The Print Operations Group (POG), a manufacturer independent print consulting organization, won it's second "Best Services" award as voted on by the participants at the second annual Print and Imaging Summit, produced by Vision Events®, a Gartner, Inc. (NYSE: IT) company.

"The IT Executives in attendance review many products and services at the Print & Imaging Summit. A Print & Imaging Technology Award signifies that the attendees viewed the winners as having a level of excellence for IT Technology Providers in their category," said Charles Badoian, Vice President, Program Management for the Print & Imaging Summit.

"Winning at the Print & Imaging Summit in 2006 was great! Winning again in 2007 is fantastic, and will serve as a huge endorsement of the quality and value of the POG service offering.

Industry recognition for best services and best case study presentation twice in a row is a proud honor for the entire North American Print Operations Group team. The delegates at this year's event appreciated the value that POG's 13 years and 120+ sets of "real life" data will generate for their respective organizations. We stand ready to serve!" ... said Jim Rempel, President and Founder of POG.
